DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 02 October 2008 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 8, 9 and 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dible (WO 96/34580). Dible discloses the method of treating the proximal portion of a main vessel including providing a stent (110) having first and second rings (at 112, and 113, for example), mounting the stent on a catheter having long and short balloons (see figure 10) positioned side by side within the distal end of the stent, and advancing the catheter and stent through the vasculature such that no portion of the stent extends distally beyond the opening in the main vessel (see figure

Art Unit: 3731

7). The balloons are inflated to expand the stent, and then are deflated and removed from the vasculature. The catheter system includes guide wires (222 and 242) that pass through guidewire passageways.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 02 October 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Examiner notes that applicant has not filed any new amendments or arguments between the mailing of the advisory action on 14 July 2008 and the submission of the request for continued examination. Therefore, the response to applicant's arguments is repeated below and the rejection is maintained.

5. Applicant first argues the stent (110) of Dible is only a portion of a prosthesis. However, Examiner interprets the prosthesis as comprising three stents connected together, and therefore this argument is not persuasive. Applicant also argues that the balloons are not both positioned within the stent. However, with the balloons configured as in figure 10, the proximal end of the balloon would be positioned at least partially within the stent, and therefore this argument is also not persuasive. In an alternate interpretation, in order to remove the balloons from the blood vessel, the balloons must pass through the expanded stent and at this point the balloons are also positioned side-by-side within the stent

Conclusion

6. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

7. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
